

Alien Invaders!

We have worked hard to eradicate invasive exotic plants and animals from our Natural Area.

It will take many years before the system will maintain itself. In the meantime, invasive exotic plants like Lantana camara

will be treated with herbicides. Many people think lantana is a native plant, as it appears in fields and roadsides all over the state. Invasive plants and animals compete with our wildlife for resources which are often scarce.